OFFICE OF HEARINGS AND APPEALS

In the Matter of:

JENNIFER COBBS,

Petitioner.

22-AM-0198-AG-126
(Claim No. 721016758)

October 23, 2023

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On August 26, 2022, the Court received Petitioner's Hearing Request wherein Petitioner claimed that garnishment of her wages to repay the alleged debt in this cause would cause financial hardship. Thereafter, the Court ordered the Secretary and Petitioner to file documentary evidence in support of their respective positions. The Secretary complied with the Court's order and filed a Secretary's Statement and supporting evidence on October 19, 2022. Petitioner did not comply or otherwise respond.

Having not received a timely filing from Petitioner, the Court ordered Petitioner to show cause as to why their appeal should not be dismissed. Again, Petitioner did not comply or respond.

When a party fails to comply with an order of the Court, the Court may impose a sanction that reasonably relates to the severity and nature of the failure. 24 C.F.R. § 26.4. If a party fails to prosecute or defend an action, dismissal of the matter or a decision against that party may also be imposed. Id. at § 26.4(d).

To date, Petitioner has not complied with the Court's orders or otherwise produced evidence in support of their position that a wage garnishment in the amount proposed by the Secretary would cause financial hardship. Accordingly, this matter is DISMISSED, and the stay of proceedings issued on September 19, 2022 is hereby VACATED.

So ORDERED,
