DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT
OFFICE OF HEARINGS AND APPEALS

In the Matter of:

Marian Weiah,

Petitioner.

23-VH-0162-AG-092
(Claim No. 721018783)

March 18, 2024

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

24 C.F.R. § 26.4 (c) provides that “If a party refuses or fails to comply with an order of the hearing officer, including an order compelling discovery, the hearing officer may enter any appropriate order necessary to the disposition of the hearing including a determination against the noncomplying party...” Further, under 24 C.F.R. § 26.4 (d), it provides, “If a party fails to prosecute or defend an action brought under subpart A of this part, the hearing officer may dismiss the action or may issue an initial decision against the non-prosecuting or defending party. (Emphasis added).

On August 31, 2023, Petitioner filed a Request for Hearing to review HUD’s determination that Petitioner owed the subject debt. There is no record of evidence in support of Petitioner’s claim that the subject debt was not owed or was paid off, or that Petitioner was released from the contractual obligation to pay the subject debt. To date, Petitioner has failed to comply with the Court’s subsequent Show Cause Order issued on February 5, 2024 to produce sufficient evidence as proof of Petitioner’s position. The Secretary’s Statement was filed on October 17, 2023.

The Order to Show Cause specifically stated “Failure to comply with this Order may result in sanctions being imposed by the Court pursuant to 24 C.F.R. § 26.4(c)-(d), including judgment entered on behalf of the opposing party, dismissal of this action, or a decision based on the documents in the record of this proceeding. Non-compliance, and timeliness of the same, shall be determined based on the Court’s assessment of the record of the proceeding. (Emphasis added). Petitioner again failed to comply as ordered. The lapse of time since September 2023 has provided Petitioner with sufficient opportunities to comply with the Court’s Orders. As a result, the Court is unable to determine the credibility of Petitioner’s argument in the absence of such evidence.

Consistent with the provisions of 24 C.F.R. § 26.4 (c) and (d), Petitioner’s appeal is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE sua sponte due to Petitioner’s non-compliance with the Court’s Orders to produce the evidence necessary for the Court’s review.

The stay of proceeding issued on September 1, 2023 is hereby VACATED.

SO ORDERED.
