Affordable Housing in the Tulsa Jurisdiction of the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development

Affordable, or “assisted” housing, is designed to provide decent, safe and affordable housing for low to moderate income individuals and families. Eligibility is based on household adjusted annual income and family size. HUD’s programs include:

1. Multifamily Rental Housing “Project-based Section 8”
2. Supportive housing for the elderly and persons with disabilities
3. Public Housing (PH)
4. Housing Choice, “Section 8” Vouchers

This Guide includes affordable housing available through The United States of Agriculture’s (USDA) Rural Development (RD) apartment complexes, many of which also have rental assistance. Housing Choice “Section 8” are also available from some housing authorities, which are those marked as “PH” on the Guide; if a housing authority has an asterisk beside the name (*) it offers Vouchers.

You will need to call the telephone number listed by the apartment complex you are interested in, and ask about how to apply.

To apply for a Housing Choice Section 8 Voucher in Tulsa, go to www.tulсахousing.org or go to the housing authority in your city or town. An additional resource for Housing Choice Section 8 Vouchers for areas without a local housing authority offering the program is:
